Military Child Education Coalition
...for the sake of the child.

Dear Sir or Madam,

October 7, 2013

I am happy to present this copy of Military Children and Families, a Princeton-Brookings publication of The Future of Children journal.

The Future of Children and the Military Child Education Coalition jointly developed this edition to promote effective policies and programs for military-connected children and their families.

We hope you will find this journal informative and useful in your professional endeavors. Perhaps even more so, we hope you will come away with an even greater respect and appreciation for not only those who serve our nation, but for their families and children as well.
Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read "Michael L. Gravens".

Michael L. Gravens
Director, Strategic Communications & Outreach

"2013 EANGUS Conference Attendance Information"

"The Department of Defense/National Guard Bureau has found this event meets the minimum regulatory standards for attendance by DoD employees. This finding does not constitute a blanket approval or endorsement for attendance. Individual DoD Component commands or organizations are responsible for approving attendance of its DoD employees based on mission requirements and DoD regulations. The Department of Defense has no legal objection to individual DoD Component commands or organizations approving the attendance or participation of its DoD employees at this Annual Membership Meeting. DoD Component commands or organizations may also approve the acceptance of reduced fees or free attendance by their employees in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 1353, Acceptance of Travel and Related Expenses from Non-Federal Sources.

This determination for official attendance by DoD personnel is not extended to the EANGUS golf tournament. If DoD personnel want to attend the EANGUS golf tournament, in a personal capacity, on off-duty time and at their own cost, they may do so.

"No Federal endorsement is intended" by any approval for official DoD participation in this event."
